EXTREMELY GRAVE

Saline Solution and Nitro-Glycerine Administered to the Postmaster General.

FEEBLENESS OF THE HEART ACTION

Patient Retained Consciousness All the Time and His Mind Appears to Be Active and Alert.

Several Times Friday He Had Sinking Spells and the Physicians Believed the End Was Near at Hand.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The condition of Postmaster General Payne, whose serious illness was announced Thursday night, continued extremely grave throughout Friday. There were times during the day, notably in the early morning and late in the afternoon, when the attending physicians believed the end was near at hand, but the patient responded to the heroic remedies applied and seemed to regain some of the lost ground. Friday night at about 8 o'clock Mr. Payne fell into a restful sleep, which continued for some time. The doctors regarded this as encouraging for a peaceful night.

Several bulletins were issued by the physicians during the day and all of them indicated the critical condition of the patient.

The greatest cause of alarm was the feebleness of the heart action and it was found necessary to administer saline solution and nitro-glycerine to stimulate that organ. Only moderately sized doses were given, however, and in each case the response was gratifying. The most hopeful sign of the case is the fact that although his stomach always has been a weak spot with him he has been able to retain the nourishment given him Friday. Except during the sinking spells several of which occurred during the day and evening, Mr. Payne retained consciousness all the time and his mind appeared to be active and alert. Several times he asked questions of those about him, indicating his interest in what was transpiring. One or more physicians are constantly at the postmaster general's bedside, but aside from them and the nurse, no one except Mrs. Payne has been allowed in the sick room. Mrs. Payne, although very much overwrought by the condition of her husband, has borne up bravely.

Dr. William Osler, the heart specialist and diagnostician of Baltimore, was brought into the case Friday evening. He remained for about an hour and joined the other physicians in signing the 11 o'clock bulletin. Dr. Osler said that while Mr. Payne's condition was critical, he had hopes that with a restful night he would show improvement in the morning. At the same time, he added, the case was like a "tip in the balance—it might go one way or the other."

Everywhere in official circles Friday the deepest concern and solicitude was manifested in the outcome. The president was kept constantly advised during the day and both he and Mrs. Roosevelt called in person during the day and evening. Mrs. W. S. Cameron, of Jamestown, N. Y., the only sister of the postmaster general, arrived in this city on an evening train. She was met at the station by some friends of the family and was shown to the Payne family apartments where she will remain pending the critical stage of the illness. Her son, W. H. Cameron, of Milwaukee, also has been summoned here.

Two Years' Imprisonment.

St. Louis, Oct. 1.—John H. Schnetler, former member of the house of delegates, who pleaded guilty three months ago to charges of bribery in connection with the suburban railway deal, was Friday sentenced to two years' imprisonment.

Sir Gilbert Parker, the eminent novelist, has been a clergyman, professor in a deaf and dumb institute, deacon, editor and playwright.

OPEN SALOONS ON SUNDAY.

Lexington Mayor and City Officials Threatened With Indictments.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 1.—The grand jury Friday threatened to indict the mayor and other city officials for allowing saloons to remain open on Sundays and between midnight and 4 a. m. on week days and for allowing gambling. The Law and Order league, composed principally of preachers and church people, made a strong protest to the grand jury against an "open town." Preparations have been made to run the town "wide open" the next two weeks during the trots. The mayor refused to give a promise to close the saloons and gambling houses, but called a meeting of the police commissioners for Saturday morning. It is reported that indictments have been drawn against all the city officials, even including the police and detective forces, and that the indictments are being held up pending a compliance with the demands of the grand jury. The grand jury intended to adjourn Saturday, but will remain in session another week to see that its demands are complied with by the city officials.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

His Aunt Was Taken For a Ghost By Tisdale and He Fired.

Richmond, Ky., Oct. 1.—Mrs. Eliza Foster was accidentally killed by her nephew, Walter Tisdale, with whom she made her home at White's Station. Mrs. Foster arose Thursday night about 11 o'clock and went out into the yard. She wore her night garments, and making a ghostly figure in the moonlight, frightened Tisdale's wife, who, waking, noticed some one in the yard.

His wife's screams awoke Tisdale, who also saw Mrs. Foster's figure advancing toward the house, and he quickly grabbed his shotgun. Although he ordered Mrs. Foster to halt, she, doubtless failing to hear or understand him, steadily came forward, whereupon Tisdale raised his gun and fired, killing his aunt instantly. Tisdale is nearly distracted.

KILLED SCHOOLMATE.

Kentucky Youth Shot Dead Over a Game of Marbles.

Mayking, Ky., Oct. 1.—In a district school near the border of Virginia Wilson Cantrill, 17, and Thomas Maggard, 16, schoolmates, had an altercation over a game of marbles.

Cantrill armed himself with a .32-caliber Colt revolver, and when school was dismissed Thursday he shot young Maggard dead.

Cantrill fled, but was pursued by a posse and arrested Friday morning ten miles from the scene.

Life Sentences Affirmed.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 1.—In the court of appeals Friday the life sentences given Charles and William Nelms for the murder of Mrs. Charles Nelms were affirmed. The judgment for $5,000 on an accident policy on the life of Charles Milward, of Lexington, was affirmed. It was shown that he had not committed suicide.

Shot and Killed by His Wife.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 1.—"Tricky Jim" Bach was shot and killed by his wife, it is alleged. She had been divorced from him at the last term of court, and he came Friday to call on her. She refused to allow him to enter. He persisted, and when she fired he was so close that his clothes caught fire, it is charged.

Fearful Walls Would Collapse.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 1.—Rev. Father Baumeister, pastor of St. Ann church, Friday ordered St. Ann parochial school, West Covington, dismissed, owing to the condition of the front wall of the building. He feared the wall, which showed signs of sinking, might collapse.

Gov. Beckham at Owensboro.

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 1.—Gov. Beckham arrived in this city Friday afternoon from St. Louis to visit his wife's parents. He refused to be interviewed on the action of Lieut. Gov. Thorne in pardoning Clem Butcher, the Louisville murderer, while he was absent in St. Louis.

Love-Sick Youth Suicides.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 1.—Despondent because his sweetheart had rejected his affections, Simeon Clemmons, 20, grandson of Rankin Clemmons, one of the wealthiest men in Central Kentucky, committed suicide by blowing off the top of his head with a shotgun.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 1.—The state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution was opened at the Louisville hotel Friday morning. Mrs. Charles H. Todd, of Owensboro, state regent, presided. Mrs. Todd will be re-elected state regent.

The most widely known English writer in Japan is Carlyle.

AT PORT ARTHUR.

Repeated Attacks Failed to Drive Out the Russian Fleet and Reduce the Fortress.

WILL GO INTO WINTER QUARTERS.

The Only Alternative Left to the Japs is to Cut Off Supplies and Communications.

Chinese Issued An Order Forbidding the Sale of Goods to the Russians, It Being a Breach of Neutrality.

London, Oct. 1.—The failure of the latest Japanese attempt to drive out the Port Arthur fleet and reduce the fortress has led, according to the Daily Telegraph's Chee Foo correspondent, to the decision that the Japanese must go into winter quarters. Japanese officers admitted that Gen. Stoessel is making a superb stand.

"Accordingly," the correspondent says, "permanent fortifications affording excellent shelter are being constructed outside the Russian main line of defenses and warm clothing is being brought up for the troops. Reinforcements are continuously arriving. Finding it impossible to hold outer forts, even when they are captured, owing to the enfilading fire, the only alternative left the Japanese is to cut off supplies and communications."

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Simlitan states that the Chinese authorities there have issued an order forbidding the sale of goods to the Russians on the ground that it would constitute a breach of neutrality.

The Morning Post report of a general engagement in which the Japanese were victorious, at Mukden, is not confirmed in any quarters. It is probably an exaggerated version of outpost affairs.

The dispatch from Mukden Friday reporting that a serious collision between the opposing armies there is regarded as imminent, attracts the greatest attention from the London press. It is considered certain that the dispatch was mutilated by the military censor.

Tien-Tsin, Oct. 1.—Russian officers here admit that it is the intention of the remaining Russian war vessels at Port Arthur to attempt to escape. They say that they expected the movement one week ago, and that it may now be expected daily.

Mukden, Oct. 1.—A great change in the situation here has occurred. The Japanese now appear anxious to act on the defensive, and have fortified a position northwest of the Yentai mines.

According to the best estimates obtainable, the Japanese army confronting Gen. Kuropatkin comprises a grand total of 180 battalions. Allowing 800 men to a battalion there are 144,000 infantry. In addition there are 6,300 cavalry and 638 guns. The distribution of the Japanese forces is as follows: One division at Bentslapitze, two divisions at the Yentai mines, four divisions on the railway a little north of Liao Yang, one division westward near Hamagaden and one division at Sandepu.

COUNTERFEITING CHARGE.

Preliminary Trial of Charles A. Manston at Atlanta, Ga.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 1.—The principal witness in the preliminary trial of Charles A. Manston, charged with counterfeiting $10 Buffalo bills, was Wynne, the self-confessed counterfeiter. Wynne testified that he and Manston were the men that made the plates but that Manston did that part of the work which required the skill of an expert. Manston is one of the best known engravers in the south. He is well known in religious circles of the city.

The Old Transport Burnside.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 1.—The old federal transport "Burnside," which was sunk during the operations about this city in the early sixties, was raised from the bed of the Tennessee river by recent high water and landed on a spoil where parts of the hull and the boilers are visible.

Accepts a Professorship.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 1.—G. H. Trever, of Whitewater, Wis., the prohibition candidate for lieutenant governor, has accepted a professorship at the Gammon theological seminary at Atlanta, Ga., and has resigned his place on the ticket.

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 1.—After being in continuous session for nearly 12 hours the jury in the trial of A. H. Butler, cashier of the defunct Exchange bank at Lockport, brought in a verdict Friday finding the defendant not guilty.

THE LATE SENATOR HOAR.

The Expressions of Sympathy Over His Death is Unstinted.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 1.—Friday was a day of tribute to Senator Hoar. From all parts of the commonwealth of the country and from beyond the borders of the United States have come expressions of sympathy and with them unstinted encomiums to the worth, the service and the character of the dead statesman. The utterances have been confined to no party or school or creed.

Buzzard's Bay, Oct. 1.—Former President Grover Cleveland said: "Senator Hoar's death is a positive loss to our nation. His ability, his high mindedness and his freedom from political trickery furnish an example of a useful life which may well be imitated by all those entrusted by their countrymen with public duties."

Salt Lake, Utah, Oct. 1.—Deep regret was expressed Friday by President Smith, of the Mormon church, over the death of Senator Hoar. "I regard Senator Hoar as a statesman and a gentleman and one of the foremost men of America, an honorable and high-minded citizen and legislator."

Washington, Oct. 1.—The house committee as named by Speaker Cannon to attend the funeral of Senator Hoar is as follows: The entire Massachusetts delegation and Messrs. Capron, Littlefield, Dwight, Morrill, Howell, Alexander, Longworth, Sulzer, Currier and Hill.

ISTHMIAN CANAL.

Estimates on Waterway 90 Feet Above Sea Level is Placed at $144,000,000.

ONE DAM ONLY IS NECESSARY.

About 12,000 Laborers, Half of Whom Are Skilled Workmen, Are at Work at Present.

While the Efficiency of Their Work is Not as Great as Can Be Secured, Still It is Adapted to the Climate.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal, delivered an address on "The Isthmian Canal" at a banquet given him here Friday night by 400 members of the Illinois Manufacturers' association at the Auditorium hotel.

Mr. Wallace said, in part: "The work before us now is to determine the most practical plan and whether the canal is to be on the level of the sea or above. Estimates on a canal 90 feet above the sea level have been placed at $144,000,000 for construction work, $40,000,000 to France and $10,000,000 to the Panama government. On my arrival in Panama three months ago I placed eight parties in the field for exploration purposes. Were we to choose the plans providing for 90 feet above the sea level a number of dams would be necessary. After considerable investigation we found that solid rock necessary for proper foundation would not be found less than 150 feet below the surface of the earth. With the sea level canal one dam at the Pacific end of the canal is all that is necessary. While the cost of the latter form of construction is higher, the results would be better and the canal could at any time be changed. As yet it has not been definitely decided which form of canal will be accepted, as the canal commission has not received the report of my investigations."

"Nothing serious is expected from the labor problem, as has been reported. About 12,000 laborers, half of whom are skilled workmen, are at work at present. While the efficiency of their work is not as great as can be secured, still it is adapted to the climate, as the cities bordering on the canal are almost uninhabitable to outsiders because of their poor sanitary conditions."

INJUNCTION ISSUED.

Mine Owners Restrained From Compelling Miners To Forsake Union.

Leadville, Col., Oct. 1.—Judge F. M. Owers Friday issued an injunction against the members of the Leadville Mining District association, restraining them from proceeding further to compel miners to forsake the Western Federation of Miners and take out association cards in order to retain their positions in the mines of the camp. Nearly 2,000 cards had been issued by the association when their work in this direction was interrupted Friday. The application for an injunction was made by the president and secretary of the local miners' union. The defendants named comprise nearly every mine owner and manager in the camp. They are restrained from discriminating against union miners.

THE AGE LIMIT.

Over a Thousand Employees of the Pennsylvania System Discharged.

Wellsville, O., Oct. 1.—Over one thousand employees of the Pennsylvania system northwest, and the Pennsylvania southwest, left the service of the company Friday night because of a general order that has been issued and made operative. No employee of the company who was hired after he reached the age of 35 is to be retained. If a man was hired before he was 35, then he retains his position. Station employees, roadmen and shop employees feel the force of this order.

EVERY Democrat should resolve to do one thing early Tuesday morning—register.

DEMOCRATS, remember you must register next Tuesday or you cannot vote in November.

CHAIRMAN ERNST's threat to put every rascally Republican politician in the Eleventh district in the penitentiary will not, if carried into execution, leave enough voters in Hunter's bailiwick to stand up and be counted.

OLLIE JAMES will be on the stump for the Democrats at the earliest possible moment. No other speaker has more admirers than the herculean Congressman from the First district. His splendid presence is in itself a favorable introduction, and when he adds to that real merit as a speaker with the spirit and fire of a true orator, he wins his hearers without effort.

TOM WATSON has written a history that will live. He is also the author of a novel that ranks with Uncle Tom's Cabin as a study of race conditions. He is a many-sided man and interesting in everything he does, but when he becomes a stool pigeon of the Republicans, and while posing as a candidate for President plays into the hands of Roosevelt, the avowed enemy of the South, he not only makes his cause ridiculous, but destroys whatever character or prestige he may have gained from his former, honorable affiliation.

THE federal office-holders who have been heavily assessed for campaign purposes by the Republicans have found that their duties before the election will not consist only in putting up a large part of their salaries. The bosses have issued instructions for every mother's son of 'em to attend the speakings and help swell the crowd. If it appears that a crowd cannot be mustered in any other way, the boys have orders to hunt up their friends and take them along. This shows to what extremes the enemy are going in an effort to win the fight.

GOVERNOR BECKHAM has placed his time and services at the disposal of the State Campaign Committee, and from every section has come a demand for his presence. There was a time when the Governor was not a great orator, but he has developed into one of the most earnest and forceful speakers in the party. Lacking some of the graces and enthusiasm of the real spellbinder he has, however, the faculty of putting in a plain, straightforward way the things that people want to know about public affairs. Not only as an exponent of his admirable administration, but as a defender and expounder of Democratic doctrine he will be heard with interest throughout the Commonwealth.

Mr. Garfield Walsh has resigned his position at the State National Bank to become Assistant Auditor of the National Telephone Company of Charleston, W. Va.

The Depew-Burdett Stock Company will open a week's engagement at the Washington Opera House, commencing Monday night in a repertoire of "royalty plays," staged with special scenery and mechanical effects. Great train robbery pictures. Ladies free Monday night if seats are secured before 6 p. m. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Tickets on sale at Ray's Monday morning.

MANY OLD VETERANS

Will Vote For Congressman Kehoe in November to Show Their Appreciation of His Good Work in Securing Pensions For Not a Few.

Editor of the Bulletin:

INGRATITUDE—want of gratitude or sentiment of kindness for favor received, insensibility to favors, and want of a disposition to repay them.

When the compilers of Webster's dictionary gave the above definition to the word ingratitude it impresses one that not only the definition as a whole, but every word that goes to construct the meaning of the word conveys a distinct meaning of what it is to be an ingrate, and the sentence to epitomize the definition that ingratitude is abhorred by God and man leaves no doubt in our minds that he is indeed an ingrate that has no sense of gratitude for favors bestowed.

After the late reunion of the Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry and Tenth Kentucky Cavalry, I fell into conversation with an old veteran about Cocke's battery that thundered all along the line from '61 to '65 and after whipping all the rebels from Fort Sumter to Appomattox, we drifted to the all-absorbing topic, politics. To my great surprise he said frankly with open countenance of sentiment that would not be misunderstood that James N. Kehoe had done more in the way of legislating in behalf of the old soldier than any Congressman that ever represented the district, and that he intended to vote for his return to Congress in November. And I know that he has the courage and purity of character to so cast it, and that he will never be abhorred by God or man for his gratitude to a faithful servant of the decrepit old veteran.

I have been in constant communication with Mr. Kehoe all the time he has been in Congress, in behalf of some one that wanted a pension or increase of pension, and he has never failed to respond, with acts of labor that consumed time among musty files of papers stored in the Pension Department from the beginning of the Civil war to date, clearing up the record of applicants.

Would it not be base ingratitude for a man to cast his vote against the return of this gentleman to Congress that secured for you a pension that you were told by Congressmen from Ohio and this State that it was impossible to get you a pension upon the record on file in the Pension Department against you?

I say these things have been overcome by Kehoe, and he a Democrat, against the judgment of Congressmen who have represented the district as a Republican, and who now would say to this same man it was his bounden duty to support him because the pensioner was a Republican.

Old veterans, show your gratitude for the man who has stood by you in want for the last four years, and who will stand by the widow in her bereavement as your comrade sounds taps over the form beneath the sod.

J. HENRY PECOR.

Sure
Relief for Women.

No. 18 Central Ave.
Hot Springs, Ark., April 30, 1903.

Eighteen months ago I was so completely run down that my body ached from head to foot. My back seemed to break in two and I suffered intense pain in the lower abdomen. I could not afford to lay off and take a rest, and no medicine helped me any.

A friend told me how much Wine of Cardui built her up and advised me by all means to take it. The day I took the first dose the recovery of my health began. It was nearly three months before I was entirely cured, but at the end of that time I was in better health than I had been for seven years.

Anna Nelson
ORATOR, WEDNESDAY CHAUTAUQUA CLOS.

WINE of CARDUI

Mrs. Nelson describes the condition of thousands of women. That condition comes by slow stages. Usually the important function of menstruation is at first slightly irregular. Then comes the painful periods. Bearing-down pains and ovarian inflammation follow. Finally the nervous system gives way and the whole system has become affected and the pains rack the body from head to foot.

Wine of Cardui is a menstrual regulator of established reputation. No woman who takes it suffers as Mrs. Nelson suffered. It gives speedy and complete relief from the torturing menstrual agonies which are making so many women invalids today. Do not let yourself come to the pitiable condition Mrs. Nelson describes.

Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today and begin treatment immediately.

THE BOONE FAMILY.

Sketch of Those Early Pioneers Written By a Descendant, Mrs. Belle Mitchell Rogers of This City.

The BULLETIN's gifted friend, Mrs. Belle M. Rogers, has written a very able sketch of her ancestors, the Boones, which has been published in the September number of the State Historical Register.

The article has been highly complimented by the editors, Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, and many others. It relates many interesting reminiscences of the early pioneers, some of which we would be glad to reprint were it not for their great length.

Accompanying the sketch are fine half-tone pictures of Maysville—a bird's-eye view from the Germantown pike—the court house, the old court house at Washington—the best, by the way, we have ever seen published of this old landmark—Jacob Boone's residence on Front street, now known as the McDonald house, and the Boone lot in the old graveyard at the rear of the Washington Opera House. The paragraphs relating to this historic spot are not without interest and we give them in full:

The old cemetery here is among the oldest known in the county, and probably the first spot set apart by our city's founders as a resting place for their dead. The ground was donated by Jacob Boone as a site for church purposes; the graveyard was hatched of it; afterwards used by the Washington Fire Company, and, like most property of this sort, suffered neglect. It has long been unused for purposes of sepulture. At one time my father, at his own expense, had a fence put around it, but he has been dead so long (forty years), the timbers, like the occupants of the tombs, are gradually smouldering to dust, and general desolation greets the eye—tombs fallen in ruins, headstones scattered promiscuously about, many gravesites buried beneath the earth.

Soon after the Washington Fire Company obtained control (by limitation of its donors), they set about the task of putting things in order—clearing out surplus and dead timbers, trimming up trees, removing debris and repairing tombs, and it required much labor and expenditure of money, and the change was so marked it was indeed very gratifying to those whose kindred lie buried there.

The stones still remain standing to mark the graves of my ancestors. They read thus:

Sacred to the memory of
who departed this life May 4, 1827.
Age 72 years, 5 months and 11 days.

Affliction sore, long time I bore,
Physicians were in vain,
Till God did please to give me ease
And free me from all pain.

Adjoining this grave is that of his wife:

Sacred to the memory of
MARY BOONE,
consort of Jacob Boone,
who departed this life July 30, 1824. Age 74 years, 9 months and 29 days.

Next to the Boones rests Nancy Boone Mitchell, daughter of Jacob Boone, who was born September 14, 1775, and died July 30, 1821. By her side rests the remains of her husband, John Mitchell, who died December 4, 1830, in the sixtieth year of his age. They were my grandparents, and I have in my possession their funeral invitations, printed on coarse paper, also the family Bible.

Close by the grave of Nancy Boone Mitchell is the grave of her uncle, Daniel Dee Hart, her mother's brother, a soldier of the Revolution. Many tombs have also been gathered together; no one would ever have known their original places. But, though the graves go unmarked, their dead shall be yielded up on that great day alike with those that later on are designated by costly monumental shafts in the Maysville Cemetery.

Second M. E. Church, South, Rev. H. E. Roseberry pastor.—Preaching to-morrow at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m. The public cordially invited.

Usual services at Christian Church to-morrow at 10:45 a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m. Let every member be present. Morning subject, "The Angel Flying in Mid Heaven." Evening subject, "Come and See."

The L. and N. will run an excursion to Cincinnati, Sunday, Oct. 2. Rate, $1.50 for the round trip, tickets limited to date of sale and going and returning only on special train leaving here at 5:40 a. m. Returning, special train will leave Cincinnati at 8 p. m. from Fourth street station.

The postoffice department has just issued a neat pamphlet containing a vast fund of general postal information. Postmaster Mathews has received a supply of these useful little books, which are for gratuitous distribution. Anyone wanting a copy should apply at the stamp window of the postoffice.

Be sure and see "My Wife's Family" at the Washington this afternoon and night. It is a musical farce and the company is first-class and is headed by vaudeville stars of note. The local managers recommend it and the Louisville papers have endorsed it in the highest terms. Matinee prices, children 15 cents, adults, 25 cents. Tickets on sale at Ray's for both performances. The seat sale is good and the company should have a good house.

Refrigerators,

Gasoline Stoves, Ice Cream Freezers and all summer goods must be sold. Call early and secure bargains in these lines.

Rich warm browns, besides greys and blacks, in scores of tasteful mixtures, are the fashionable tones for fall wear. The Rochester made Clothing that we have ready for your inspection show these colors to perfection. The latitude of model, carefulness of make and freshness of style are the most advanced of any that these smart tailors have produced. Shrewd critics of keen tailoring will tell you that Rochester made Clothes are equalled only by top notch custom tailors. Come in and look them over.

Judging from the number of Cravenette Coats we have already sold thus early in the season and the admiration they have received from all that have looked at them shows that we have got what swell dressers want.

Your summer shoes are wearing a little thin. You know what kind we sell. To those that do not know we say that we sell the best that are made.

HARD TO EXPLAIN.

If This Had Occurred Anywhere Else Than Maysville Our Readers Might Doubt It.

It's hard to explain how the public can continue to doubt in the face of such evidence. If this were published anywhere else than in Maysville, if the statement given below went the rounds of the press, readers in Boston or New Orleans might doubt it. But it's very different when the testimony given comes from a friend, perhaps a neighbor. It is public expression of a local citizen and can be easily investigated.

Mr. Larmon Dawson, residing at 924 East Second street, says: "The quick relief from pain in my back, which followed the use of Doan's Kidney Pills proved them to possess remarkable healing powers. I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner West Second and Market streets. From the satisfactory results obtained I can advise all in need of a kidney medicine to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Good Help in Demand.

The BULLETIN knows of a good home for some worthy white girl who is willing to cheerfully do the work required of her in a medium-sized family. Satisfactory wages and kind treatment promised in exchange for faithful services. Good looks not necessary, but a mild temper is an essential qualification.

A certain mercantile house wants an industrious lad to begin with small wages and learn the business. An advance in salary will come when it is deserved. Boys who began with this firm hold fine positions in some of the largest cities—one in particular, at Chicago, drawing almost a princely salary.

These parties do not want their names given because they haven't the time to be bothered with applicants. Anyone wishing to apply for either of above situations can leave their names with the editor, who will see that they are forwarded to the proper parties.
